The Prossian State Gizette of the 12th May, inclusive, had been received in London. The Prossian Governmen has or lettered a Military Cordon along all its frontiers, from Meniel to Silesia, to goard against the introduction of the Cholerar and regulations have been laid down with respect to the intercourse with the countries on the other side of the Line. No news from Wirsaw later than the 12th appears in the State Gazette. Gazette.

is stated from Ries. May 9, that "General Schir on the peculiar situation

State Gazette.

It is stated from Ries, May 9, that "General Schirman, who marched from Dunaborg with four battalions and four carmon, has passed through part of Samogitia, and joined General Baron Pablen, near Jamisecka. At Szawle he was received before the tempt by the greater part of the inhabitants and the clery bearing the crucifix. The insurgents were dispersed a herever they were met with as he passed through Szawle on the 7th Hay, and proceeded to Tilsch, where it was said the insurgents were in great force, and intended to make a stand. Baron Pablen, the Governor-General, does his utmost, by mildness, to open the eyes of the deluded country people, and save them from inspeakable misery; 9,000 men of the 5th division of the army of reserve go to-mourow into the new canton in Livonia, from Itiga to Dunaburg; 20,000 men are already assembled in Samogitia and Courland."

FRANCE AND AUSTRIA.

FOREIGN

Late From Bingland.

The sade shop his black that of the 190 May be a street of the street of the 190 May be a street of the state of the towns of the minimum and the product of the towns of the many control of the state of the st polisticate items the state the said fort. We make the said fort, the make the same time over Arabia, Rubia, Seminary the Arabia in the part the Soth Barrier of the Arabia in the present state. In contrained the same time over the same are the EXECUTION OF MARKEY.

Sec. 13.85

In obedience to the sentence of the law, the execution of John Markley, who was convicted in Frederick County Court for the murder of John Newcy and family, took place on an eminence south of this town, on Friday the 24th ult. The concourse of people that assembled to witness the melancholy spectacle was immense. Every portion of ple that assembled to witness the melancholiv spectacle was immense. Every portion of the State furnished its quota of spectators—nav. even Virginia and Pennsylvaria contributed, to the vast assemblage—men, women and children—white and black, master and slave beingd to make up the motley countribute. men and children—white and black, master and slave helped to make up the motley cruwd that thronged to witness the dying struggles of a miserable wretch, condemned to explate his crimes upon the scaffold.

About half-past ten o'clock, the prisoner, attended by the Rev. Mr. Schæffer, in charge try, under the command of Maj. J. M. Shelman.

The Rev. D. F. Schæffer seized the occasion to address the crowd on the dangers of indulging in the vices of ganning, drankeal including in the vices of ganning, drankeal of mental cand glowing language, the career of the unhappy man, whose doom the spectators had come to witness:—how he had been tors had come to witness:—how he had advance of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of immorality and vices how he had advance of the pattern of the stomach; but whenever detected to administer it, the child she attempted to administer it, the child which he was exposed, an object of horror which he was exposed. An object of horror which he was exposed an object of horror which he was a was calculated to make a world to come, as was calculated to make a world to come, as was calculated to make a world to come, as was calculated to make a world to come, as was calculated to make a world to come, as was then conducted from the same present which its was not included to a the pattern of the world which he was a dupsted about his neck and the pattern of the world which was pattern on the world which he was a sunched into eternity.

The prisoner was then conducted from the same present which is the pattern of the world which w it represents the said Markley to have it represents the said Markley to have it guilty of almost all south of stoos, excitated murden. It would, it published, ly be a momentary, warning to all gamble sabbath-breakers, who empagers, it.

sabbath-breaker, whosempagers, ac.—His death was a terrible comment on those and kindred sins.

We have been induced to make this statement, that the community may ust be guiled by penny-catchers, who are too lazy to betake themselves to useful employments, nor imposed on by those who are as ready to publish the as any thing, class, for their news eather. ites as any thing clse, for their own selfpurposes. DAVID P. SCÆFFER, Jude 27, 1831. JAMES G. HAMNER,

N. B .- Editors of newspapers are requesed to give the above statement a general circulation.

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. DEATH BY HYDROPHOBIA.

The subject of this notice was a little girl The subject of this notice was a little girl by the name of Johnson, two and a half years old. On the 20th April last, a small dog passed into a yard, 138 Chrystie street, where she was at play, and seized her by the nose, drew her to the ground. Before however severely. The dog immediately ran house to a neighbouring street, and his man. home to a neighbouring street, and his mas-ter, after learning the injury he had done, despatched him the same day. Particular of the Sheriff and his attending one of the Sheriff and his attending on conducted from the jail to the place of execution, excerted by a company of cavalry, cution, excerted by a company of capacity, and a company of infant capt. S. Carmack; and a company of infant try, under the command of Maj. J. M. Sheltry, under the command of Maj. J. M. Sheltry, under the command of Maj. J. M. Sheltry, and the comma ever they may have been, as well to demon strate his compunction, humility and repentance, as to guard his fellow creatures against the indulgence of the malignant passins which are believed to have been his upin. But to the very last moment of his existince, he solemnly averred he was not guilty. Whatever momentary impression may be made upon the mind by this conduct of the sufferer—whatever doubt of his guilt may arise, no one can entertain a rational doubt of his guilt, who recurs to the testimony under which he was convicted. It was a strong, connected, conclusive series of circumstances, which the understanding could not resist. From the Constitutional of May 20.

I cannot be denied that the different Ministers since July have not entered frankly into the principles of our Its obttion, and have very little confirmed thum. The troubles have alarmed the constructed hum. The troubles have alarmed the constructed hum. The troubles have alarmed the constructed hum. The troubles have alarmed the constructed hum, have a troubles have a first of the first have all the men who see in the revolution only a continued them is the men who see in the revolution only a continued the holds, thousever, with confidence to the decision of events. We cannot predict the shouler the solid of the elections, but the Chamber will necessfully about the decision of events. We cannot predict the shouler of the confidence to the decision of events. We cannot predict the shouler of the elections, but the Chamber will be taken of its chord to the evening preceding the evening preceding the evening of the samples of the state of the limitions, public education will be taken out of the Imperial mouth—a law on the responsibility of Minister—the examination of foreign plains as far as they concern the honour of the conjury,—these will be the business of the National Bepresentatives, and the results of their labors on these points must conform to the general opinion. I cannot be otherwise than that the initiative of the famber of Deputies must, in important matters, after it great constitutions, the charter of Egy.

It is believed that Markley entertained a perfection, and to the evening the water, the evening the water, the evening the spassins would recurs for two the processed to have been early instructed in the doctrines of Christianity, and to entertain a beginning of the technic to complete our institutions, public education will be taken of the limition of the constructed in the course of the processed to have been early instructed in the evening the spassins would recurs for two the processed to have been early instructed in the doctrines of Christianity, and to

Maryland Cagette

ANNAPOLISI Thursday, July 7, 1881.

are authorized and requested to say, beorge Cooke declines being a Cassidate e Legislature, for Anno-Arabidal county.

Anniversary of American Independance elebrated in this City. Salutes were t sun-rise and sun sot. At 10 o'clock assemblage of Ladies and Gentlemen the Senate Chamber, when the Decla-Independence was read by Wm. nrks, and an oration delivered by T. Flusser Faq. For the Maryland Gazette

THE FISHERMAN. The East wind is blowing. And heavy mist's falling, Ter the Fisherman bold, His Net will be having: He heeds not the weather, So his faggots burn bright On the les of the land Where he shelters at night, -Where the soft, drifted moss Supplies him a pillow, And his sleep is made a rect By the sound of the billow.

When he meets with success, And his Net's safe on shore, He forgets all his toil, And with glee plys the oar, O'er the foam-crested swell, To that home, where his hopes And his pleasures all dwell;-Where his moss-pillow's chang'd For the bosom of one, Who was true in her love, Whilst her Fisher was gone.

COMMUNICATED

For the Maryland Gazette.

le in the Senate Chamber this mornoccurred to me how easy a subscrip-ght be raised to erect a statue to the y of General Washington, in the very ory of General Washington, in the very where he resigned his commission. Were welfth of the population of the union to of their abundance, each one mite, it also sufficient to carry this object into We hope every state, every city, stry village and hamlet, will come for and adopt measures to further the proand adopt measures to further the plots of the And by way of setting the example, abegin in this city. At an early day I use that a meeting be held, when the reliet arrangements can be made for the active arrangements can be made for the acshment of the above design y 4th, 1831.

For the Maryland Gavette.

ving recently seen some remarks in the axing recently seen some remarks in the rican Farmer relative to the formation of the Horticultural Society. I am induced hink that such an institution will be beneal, not only to the cultivators of the soil, also to those who reap the fruits of their res. And for this, among other reasons, inse, they will, instead of the common rables, that are now for the most part ded at our markets, be supplied with those he rarest and choicest production. I there-armonse, that a Society, to be designatherarest and choicest production. I therepropose, that a Society, to be designatas above, be established, and that its ting be held in this city, on account of its tral situation, and its being, as it were, garden spot of Maryland.

VEGETATOR.

URT OF APPEALS-June Term, 1831. harsday, June 30 .- Present the whole argument of No. 123, Harbine vs. Barlessee, was continued by Wirt for the riday, July 1 .- Present as yesterday.

he argument of the above case was con-ed by Tancy, (Att'y Gen.) for the appel-163 .- Daniel Kent, vg. Belt Mulfikin's ee, et al.—This case was argued by er for the appellant, and Alexander for appellees.

atterday July 2 — Archer, J. delivered opinion of the Court in No. 140, Wells wife vs. Bealf adm'r, of Brashears, re bing the decree of the County Court. No. 119; Christian Hysinger vs. Balt.

16. This case was argued by Price for appellant, and Mayer for the appelles.

No. 120. Martin Geiser, use Knavall, va. use Kershuep—This case was argued by derson for the appellant and Price for appelles.

Papellee.
Tuesday July 5.—No. 121 Jacob Moa
Daniel Witmer—This case was argue Anderson for the appellant, and Price for Anderson for the appointing the cappelles.

No. 124. Matthew Spong et al. vs. Jacumma—The argument of this case was contended by Anderson for appellants.
Wednesday July 6.—The above case writer argued by Price and Johnson for the pelite.

Important from Port-An-Prince.
Extract of a letter feeeived by a respible mercantile house in this city, dated.
"Port-AD-Papiros, June 12th, 1851. "Pour-At-Papier, June 12th, 1831."
The French negotiations are broken ind the Consul has affinized his determined to quit the country on the 25th, he can his countrymen together and information that after that period he can he land after them protection.